Sales Intern

Suburban Collection Showplace

TELL US ABOUT YOUR INTERNSHIP.

My internship took place at the Suburban Collection Showplace. I was hired in the sales department, and I was under the supervision of event coordinators and sales managers.

WHAT WAS THE MOST MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE DURING YOUR INTERNSHIP?

I would have to say Comic Con was the most memorable and fun experience. I enjoyed being a part of the behind-the-scenes of such a big event. It takes a lot of work and collaboration between departments to ensure a successful outcome. I also found the different costumes very creative and interesting.

WHY DO YOU THINK THE EMPLOYER CHOSE YOU?

I believe I was chosen because I am interested in learning new things. I've never done sales, and I wanted to branch out more in my field. I also think I was given this opportunity because of my drive and motivation.

WHAT CAREER ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE OTHER STUDENTS?

Take risks! Do things that are out of your comfort zone.

WHY DID YOU CHOOSE YOUR MAJOR?

I chose this major because there are many opportunities in the hospitality field. You get the chance to work in different departments. This opportunity serves as a way for me to figure out what I want to do and what career path to pursue.
