INTERPRETATION OF GRADES

A (100-93)  Exceptional (4.0-3.3)
Represents outstanding achievement and carries four times as many quality points as semester credits.

It implies that the student:
 a. consistently exceeds average requirements
 b. is always alert, active and makes original and pertinent contributions to class discussions and gives evidence of well-developed critical attitude and sound judgment
 c. is prompt and neat in her assignments; uses excellent diction and has extensive vocabulary showing good command of English and mastery of the subject
 d. reads widely, works independently, and requires little or no assistance from the instructor
 e. gives evidence of superior aptitude, high originality and great ability to grasp and organize the subject matter of the course and apply it to other fields and to the problems of daily life.

B (92-86)  Good
(3.2-2.6)
Marks work which is decidedly above average and carries three times as many quality points as semester credits.

It implies that the student:
 a. frequently exceeds average requirements
 b. is usually alert and active in class discussion and gives evidence of some critical attitude and good judgment
 c. exercises noticeable care in preparing her assignments and gives evidence of doing some independent reading
 d. is eager to learn and willing to profit from direction and criticism
 e. has some ability to transfer the general principles of the course to other situations.
C (85-77)  Satisfactory
(2.5-1.7)
Marks work which is good, that is, such as is performed by an average student. It carries twice as many quality points as semester credits.

It implies that the student:
  a. performs the required assignments regularly from day to day
  b. is attentive during class hours and gives adequate answers
  c. is usually careful, neat, and accurate in her work
  d. masters the facts or general principles of the course and grasps their more general significance
  e. uses, occasionally at least, material from preceding courses but needs additional assistance.

D (76-70)  Poor but Passing (1.6-1.0)
Designates work which is below average, that is, below the standards set for graduation unless it is balanced by superior work in other courses. It carries as many quality points as semester credits.

It implies that the student:
  a. usually does the minimum requirements and grasps merely the basic material of the course
  b. frequently misunderstands the assignments and is careless in preparation of them
  c. is willing but slow to comply with instruction and correction
  d. is irregular in attendance
  e. seldom or never participates in class discussion and only gives irregular answers when detailed questions are directed by the instructor or other students.

F (69-and below)  Failure
(0.9-0)
Designates work which is poor and unsatisfactory; the student must repeat the course to gain credit.

It implies that the student:
  a. falls below the minimum requirements of the course
b. is inattentive in class and does not follow directions

c. is tardy, careless and submits partially prepared assignments

d. shows little or no interest in subject matter

e. fails to retain more than mere fragments of the principles

S, U (Satisfactory, Unsatisfactory), I, W, WP, WF as in Bulletin page 22.
