Carlynn D. Nichols, LMSW, is an Adjunct Instructor who teaches across the social work curriculum. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology at the University of Michigan in 1990. She subsequently received her Master of Social Work with a focus on Children, Youth and Families in 1994. Since graduation from University of Michigan, Carlynn has spent her career working with Children, Youth and Families with complex needs and involved in juvenile justice, child welfare and public mental health. As the Director of Children’s Initiatives for Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Agency, her focus has been on developing a comprehensive system of care for children and youth who are served by multiple systems. In her current role she is responsible for program development, utilization management, contract management, and workforce development.