Robert Nixon, MSW, is an Adjunct Instructor with Madonna University at the Gaylord University Center. He is a 2009 graduate of the Madonna University BSW program (Generalist Practice) and earned his MSW in Advanced Generalist Practice in Clinical Social Work with the University of North Dakota in 2011. Robert brings his experience in the child welfare arena to his courses as well as his nearly 10 years of work within the judicial system as a Juvenile Officer, Caseworker and Youth Specialist. Robert has a special interest in family counseling in rural settings and working with trauma victims resulting from domestic violence or assaultive crimes. Robert has taught Conflict Resolution and Introduction to Social Work courses for the department.