MS Educational Leadership: Career Opportunities

The Educational Leadership Program is for certified teachers and practicing school professionals who seek a foundation in the knowledge, skills, and performances of effective school leaders. The degree entitles school professionals to apply for State of Michigan building-level administrative certification. The program enhances the careers of teacher, assistant principal, coordinator, director, principal, and other P-12 educational roles.