

Madonna University
Livonia, MI
www.madonna.edu

Job Posting for Adjunct Faculty Members

College of Natural and Social Sciences

4/23/18

Dept/Prgm	Content Area	Courses	Delivery	Faculty Qualifications	Contact Person
Nutrition and Biomedical Sciences	Nutrition & Food Science	Undergrad and Grad courses	Day and Evening courses; classroom-based and online	MS and RDN required.	Laura Kull lkull@madonna.edu
Nutrition and Biomedical Sciences	Medical Laboratory Sciences	Hematology, Clinical Chemistry, Blood Banking, Clinical Bacteriology	Day and evening courses; classroom/lab-based and online	National Certification as MT/MLS (ASCP) as well as clinical and teaching experience in clinical areas.	Michelle Moy mmoy@madonna.edu
Biology	Biology	Anatomy & Physiology, Microbiology, Genetics, Pathophysiology	Day and evening, lecture and/or laboratory course options; online and classroom teaching	At least a Master's degree in BIO or 18 of coursework in specialized area.	Dr. Veronica Riha kschmitz@madonna.edu
Physical and Applied Science	Chemistry	Organic Chemistry Life Chemistry Physical Chemistry Inorganic Chemistry Analytical Chemistry	Day and evening; lecture and/or laboratory options; classroom teaching; also, online course development options.	Master's degree in Chemistry or 18 s.h. of academic coursework in specialized area. Ph.D. preferred.	Dr. Stanley Ngeyi Sngeyi@madonna.edu
History and Paralegal Studies	History	Undergrad: American and World History courses Grad: American and Modern World History courses	Undergrad: Classroom-based and online courses Grad: Hybrid courses taught online and in the classroom	Undergrad: MA in History Grad: 18 s.h. beyond the MA of coursework in specialized area. Ph.D. preferred.	Dennis Bozyk dbozyk@madonna.edu
Mathematics and Computer Science	Mathematics	Contemporary Math Algebra, Trigonometry, Precalculus, Calculus I, II, III, Differential Equations, Discrete Mathematics, Abstract Algebra, Intro to Real Analysis, Linear Algebra, Geometry, Probability & Stats, Math courses for Elem Teaching Certification	Day and evening courses; Livonia campus and at Macomb University Center; Classroom-based and Online courses;	Master's degree in Mathematics or statistics or a related field required. Doctorate preferred.	Dr. Susan Toma stoma@madonna.edu
Political and Social Sciences	Political Science	International Relations Comparative Politics Political Parties and Elections	Day, evening courses; Classroom-based and Online courses	MA in Political Science, International Relations or Comparative Politics – depending on course being taught	Dr. Elizabeth Prough eprough@madonna.edu
Political and Social Sciences	Aging Studies	A continuum of Gerontology and Senior Living- related specialized courses	Grad and Undergrad courses; Day, evening and weekend courses; Livonia campus and Dearborn University Center; Classroom-based and online courses.	Professional experience in the aging field required. Undergrad: Master's degree in aging-related field. Grad: 18 s.h. beyond the Master's degree of coursework relevant to gerontology; Doctorate preferred.	Dr. Denise Brothers dbrothers@madonna.edu
Social Work & Sociology	Sociology	Intro to Sociology Diversity, Discrimination & Social Justice	Day, Evening & Weekend courses; Classroom & Online Courses.	Master's degree in Sociology; doctorate a plus.	Dr. Michelle Proctor mproctor@madonna.edu