Read, Sign, and Date

If you are the student, by signing this document you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (4) will notify your college if you default on a federal student loan and (5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one college for the same period of time.

If you are the parent or the student, by signing this document you certify that all of the information provided on the FAFSA is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your FAFSA. This information may include U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you sign any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using an FSA ID (username and password), and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by that username and password, and/or any other credential, and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

Everyone whose information is reported on the FAFSA must sign below. The student (and at least one parent, if parent information is given) MUST sign below.
